LOVE

The Lord Is Able to Do the Unexpected.

One of the most unexpected things that the Lord can do, is to cause you to love your enemy. It takes the Lord to love those who have hurt you, mistreated you or done all evil against you.

On the other hand, building connections and cherishing time with family, friends, and one's church community provides a strong support system, enriching life with a sense of belonging and purpose. These are the moments that truly matter, whether sharing a meal with loved ones, participating in fellowship activities with a church family, or simply enjoying each other's company. Celebrating the memory of a cherished individual, sharing words of kindness and stories of happier times can bring tremendous comfort and keep their spirit alive.

The quote "Give me my flowers while I can still smell them" emphasizes the importance of showing appreciation in the present moment. It serves as a reminder to not wait until someone is gone to acknowledge their value or achievements. The phrase is used to encourage people to express their feelings and show kindness to loved ones, friends, and colleagues while they are still alive.

On the following pages, you will witness this kind of love and gratitude. Enjoy...

Family and Friends 2025

Congratulations from Maurice Wilkins (Eldest Brother)

A Blessed Union of Love and Faith In a world where love often wavers, the union of Larry James Wilkins and Pamela Wilkins stands as a beacon of strength, devotion, and God's enduring grace. Their marriage is a living testimony of how two very different souls-one bold and extroverted, the other gentle and reserved-can come together in harmony to create something greater than themselves. Larry, born in Chicago, carries with him the pride and perseverance of a man who has given his life in service to his country. A retired military man, he is strong-willed, passionate about sports and the simple joys of life like going to the movies, yet his most defining qualities remain his unwavering faith, his big heart, and his deep love for his family. Pamela, born in Oklahoma City, is his perfect complement. Quiet in spirit yet overflowing with wisdom, she embodies the grace of a prayerful woman. Loving and sweet, she observes with care and responds with compassion. Her gentle strength provides balance to Larry's bold energy, reminding all who know her that true power often resides in quiet faithfulness. Together, they have built a family rooted in love and God's truth. Their three children-Kimberly, Maurice, and Shaun-are not only the fruit of their union but also the living evidence of their sacrifices, prayers, and guidance. Each of them carries a deep love and admiration for their parents, cherishing the example of strength, devotion, and faith that Larry and Pamela live out every day. Theirs is a marriage that reflects the heart of God: resilient in trials, abundant in blessings, and radiant with love. A proud husband and a devoted wife, they are more than a couple-they are a team, a partnership, and a legacy. To know them is to witness the greatness of God's design for family and love.

"Greatness is not measured by power or possessions, but by the love you give, the lives you touch, and the legacy you leave behind."

"Therefore, what God has joined together, let no one separate." - Mark 10:9

Indeed, Larry and Pamela Wilkins are a lovely, blessed couple deeply loved by their children, and shining examples of faith, perseverance, and the unshakable power of love.

I am so blessed to have Pamela Wilkins in my life. We've been friends for over 36 years. I love, honor and respect her for being a spiritual friend to me, whom God ordained our relationship many years ago. I am so grateful to have a prayer partner who intercedes and stands in the gap for others. We believe in the power of prayer; we have seen many miracles, signs and wonders. We trust God! Pam will forever be my friend and family. I am thankful to God for blessing our friendship.

A Tribute to my sister, Pamela Shirley Wilkins

I am honored to write this letter on behalf of my sister, Pamela Wilkins, a woman whose life has been defined by faith, responsibility, and love. From my earliest memories, she has been a guiding presence in my life. As the eldest child at home, she assumed responsibilities far beyond her years. While our mother worked long hours, it was my sister who kept watch over five of us three boys. And two girls ensuring that we were safe, cared for, and well supervised. She cooked, guided, and reported on us with the maturity and strength that made her both sister and mother figure.

It is no surprise to me that she grew into a remarkable woman she is today. Her children are reflection of her devotion and discipline, responsible, compassionate and grounded young men and women who embodied the value she instilled in them. I witnessed her influence in my own life. When I became a single father to a teenage son, I often questioned whether I could provide the foundation he needed. But God, in his wisdom, used my sister once again. She welcomed my son into her home. I summer, along with her. Two teenage boys. To my amazement, within a month I received a call from my son, telling me he had given his life to Christ and desired to be baptized. In that moment, my heart lifted. A ingratitude to God. Realize that my limitations as a father were really God's provision was greater. To my sister's faith and household, my son's life was forever changed.

I hold my sister in highest regard like many brothers, I once. Worried. When she married, but she her steadfast faith guided That relationship as well. She prayed her husband into salvation and together they have built a family rooted in prayer, love, and perseverance.

Throughout my journey, whether in my calling to ministry or difficult seasons in our family, she has always been a source of strength. Time and time again we prayed together, and time and time again, God answered.

To know my sister is to know a woman of prayer. If you ever could ask her to pray for you, you will feel the power of God's presence and know that heaven has heard. She does not simply pray she reaches God's throne. That is the gift of my sister and that is why...

I HONOR HER TODAY.

All praise and glory belong to God, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, who has worked so powerfully through her life and continues to use her as the vessel of love., faith, and strength for all who know her.

With love and deep respect.

TO OUR DEAR

church family and friends

thank you for making this Family & Friends Day so special. We are so grateful for the wonderful fellowship, and the joyful spirit of this day. It's a true blessing to be a part of your love, support, and generosity reminding us how deeply we are cherished.

This day truly demonstrated the incredible bonds we share in Christ, and it inspires us to continue serving and spreading God's love within and beyond our walls.

We are so blessed to have you all in our lives, and we look forward to many more joyful celebrations together.
